HAMMER THEATRE CENTER PRESENTS

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC LIVE "KOBIE BOYKINS: EXPLORING MARS" AN IN-DEPTH EXPLORATION OF OUR NEAREST PLANETARY NEIGHBOR

7:30pm Wednesday, February 6, 2019

WHAT: Hammer Theatre Center presents an engaging evening of exploration with National Geographic Live! Exploring Mars with Kobie Boykins. In 2004, the successful deployment of Mars Exploration Rovers Spirit and Opportunity launched a new era of scientific investigation of our nearest planetary neighbor. For NASA Engineer Kobie Boykins, the rovers' success was also a personal triumph: he helped design and build the solar arrays that enabled the rovers to keep going long after their planned 90-day life. Audiences will join Boykins as he unravels the mysteries of the red planet with an update on the latest chapter in Mars exploration.

WHEN: 7:30pm Wednesday, February 6

WHERE: Hammer Theatre Center
101 Paseo De San Antonio, San Jose
(Between 2nd and 3rd Streets)

TICKETS: For tickets ($35-$45) the public may visit www.hammertheatre.com or call (408) 924-8501.
