SAN FRANCISCO, CA (26 April 2018) ∅ Marking its quarter-century, Smuin announces a sensational lineup for its 25th Anniversary season featuring the highly-anticipated return of Trey McIntyre, a world premiere by Amy Seiwert and brand new main stage adaptations from Smuin dancers, plus timeless classics by Michael Smuin celebrating an array of music from Gershwin to Nat King Cole.

Unveiled by Artistic Director Celia Fushille, Smuin's 2018-19 season will spotlight new works in honor of founder Michael Smuin's legacy of launching new voices in ballet, as well as his most memorable pieces and all-time favorites. Kicking off Dance Series 01 in the fall is renowned dancemaker Trey McIntyre's Blue Until June, a powerful ballet set to the legendary vocals of Etta James. In spring 2019, Smuin will present Dance Series 02 featuring a world premiere by one of Smuin's most illustrious alumni, Amy Seiwert, and The Best of Smuin showcase. The Christmas Ballet, now a Bay Area holiday tradition, also returns to spread cheer with its signature mixed repertoire of classical ballet and contemporary dance, featuring delectable new numbers. Main Stage Premieres by Smuin dancers: Merely Players by Nicole Haskins, Reflection by Ben Needham-Wood, Sinfonietta by Rex Wheeler

Schubert Scherzo by Michael Smuin

Eternal Idol by Michael Smuin

Trey McIntyre, whose world premiere celebrating the Summer of Love was a Smuin hit last spring, returns to kick off Smuin's 25th anniversary with Blue Until June. This sultry dance set to the heart-wrenching vocals of legend Etta James is McIntyre's third collaboration with Smuin, which also commissioned his hit Oh, Inverted World. Hailed by The New York Times as “one of the most important choreographers working today,” McIntyre has produced more than 100 pieces during his career, and his work has been lauded for its “true artistry” (San Francisco Examiner) and “witty physicality” (San Francisco Chronicle). Continuing Smuin’s long-time dedication to fostering new talent within the company is a trio of groundbreaking works from Smuin dancers, receiving their main stage premieres after enchanting audiences in previous Choreography Showcases: Merely Players by Nicole Haskins, Reflection by Ben Needham-Wood, and Sinfonietta by Rex Wheeler. Dance Series 01 will also include Michael Smuin’s timeless Schubert Scherzo, an effervescent dance set to Schubert’s sprightly C-Major Symphony.
