THE MARSH BERKELEY

WHAT: After coast to coast critical acclaim, Marga Gomez comes to The Marsh Berkeley with Latin Standards, her 12th and final work in the solo performance genre that The New York Times named a “Critic’s Pick” and hailed for its “winning heart and humor.” Gomez explores the loving, funny, and true story of perseverance and creative addiction passed down from immigrant father to lesbian daughter as she portrays herself as a driven adult child of a blustery Cuban showman. Between vivid portrayals of characters from 1960’s Manhattan to present day San Francisco, Gomez ponders the ballads penned by her late father Willy Chevalier: a comedian, producer, entrepreneur, and composer of dance tunes steeped in jealousy and obsession.
