7:30pm, Wednesday, May 15, 2019

SARATOGA, CA (20 March 2019) — Montalvo Arts Center presents American singer, songwriter, guitarist, and record producer, Raul Malo. Known as the incomparable frontman of the genre-defying band, The Mavericks, and the sole writer of many of their songs, Malo’s free-wheeling, swaggering style seamlessly blends neotraditional country, cowpunk, rockabilly, and Latin rhythmic fervor. His compositional craftsmanship includes timeless hits like “Here Comes the Rain,” “Crying Shame,” and “All You Ever Do Is Bring Me Down.” His demonstrable skill for getting listeners to groove to his lush, soaring baritone should have audience members dancing in the Carriage House aisles. Raul Malo will be performing 7:30pm, Wednesday, May 15 at the Montalvo Arts Center, 15400 Montalvo Rd., Saratoga. For tickets ($53 Reserved, $59 Premier) or more information, the public may visit www.montalvoarts.org or call 408-961-5858.

Raul Malo first rose to fame with the eclectic country group, The Mavericks, scoring hits with the albums What a Crying Shame (1994) and Music for All Occasions (1995), and charting 14 singles on the Billboard country charts. During the latter years of the ‘90s, Malo began doing parallel solo work and integrating Latin music and vintage pop into his music personality. When The Mavericks disbanded in the early 2000s, Malo pursued a solo career until the band re-formed in 2012 and continued to tour extensively. In 2015, The Mavericks went on to win the Americana Music Award for Duo/Group of the Year.
