

THE MARSH SAN FRANCISCO
POSTPONES PERFORMANCES OF DAN HOYLE'S
BORDER PEOPLE

Written and Performed by Dan Hoyle
Developed with and Directed by Charlie Varon

FALL 2023 DATES TBD

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (19 May 2023) – The Marsh San Francisco has postponed performances of Dan Hoyle's critically acclaimed hit, Border People. Originally scheduled for May 26 – June 24, the show will instead be presented in Fall 2023 (new dates TBD). This work, last seen at The Marsh in January 2020, is based on the award-winning actor/playwright's conversations and interviews from the South Bronx housing projects courtyards, Refugee Safe Houses on the Northern Border with Canada, and travels along the Southwestern Border and into Mexico. Featuring eleven monologues of people who live on or across borders both geographic and cultural, this work is an intimate, raw, poignant, funny look at the borders that many negotiate in their everyday lives. Border People has been greeted with unanimous critical acclaim, earning the highest rating from the San Francisco Chronicle, which noted "This is what it is to witness a master of his craft. Dan Hoyle is one of our theatrical gems," and praised the production as "A testament to the core-to-nerve ending commitment and courage" of those living on borders of any kind." For more information, the public may visit www.themarsh.org.

-30-

PRESS: Contact Sydney Albin, Carla Befera & Co.
sydney@cb-pr.com

PHOTOS: Downloadable high-res photos are available here:
<http://cbpr.co/press/borderpeople>