SAN FRANCISCO PLAYHOUSE PRESENTS
IMAGINATIVE INDIE FOLK-ROCK MUSICAL

LIZARD BOY

Book, music & lyrics by Justin Huertas
Directed by Jon Tracy
Musical Direction by Ben Prince
February 19 – April 3, 2027 (opening night: February 25)
San Francisco Premiere
SAN FRANCISCO PLAYHOUSE

WHAT: San Francisco Playhouse stages the San Francisco Premiere of indie folk-rock musical Lizard Boy. Performed by actor-musicians playing myriad instruments, Justin Huertas' wildly imaginative, comic book-infused musical follows Trevor, an introvert cursed with green, scaly skin after a childhood encounter with a dragon. On the night of Monster Fest, Trevor bravely ventures out of his apartment for a first date with his crush, pulling him out of isolation and into a city alive with possibility. However, Trevor's past catches up with him and he gets swept into an epic quest of mythic proportions, becoming a superhero, saving the world, and finding himself along the way.

Seen Off-Broadway and featuring an infectious original score that has garnered more than one million streams on Spotify, Lizard Boy has been called "Fantastical. Mysterious. Lovely," by The New York Times, "A breath of fresh air," by Times Square Chronicles, and "Innovative, funny, and wildly entertaining," by San Diego Union Tribune. The Mercury News deemed it "An absolute delight. Magnificent and inventive. Huertas rails against the conventional nature of what a superhero needs to be."
